Assistant Secretary of State for European Affairs
Department of State
Washington, D. C.

Dear Bill:

Many thanks for the address which you delivered to our Midcareer Executive Development Course on 30 October. The students praised highly your precise and interesting description of current problems in U.S. relations with European countries and were particularly impressed with the quantity of substantive material covered in a short period.

I hope we may call upon you again from time to time to address future courses.

Sincerely yours,

s/Kirk
